An institution of higher learning is a many faceted entity. It is the old and the new-brick and wood-haunted with traditions; steel and concrete—saturated with promises of the future. But it is more, it is scholarly wisdom tempered with the laughter of youth and strengthened by faith . . .

*It is living—
inside and out . . .
the beginning of a

specializing and categorizing intelligence . . .

It is involvement . . .

Belmont Abbey College

*We play hard and well . .
winning comes easily
and defeat is accepted
as need for improvement . .*

We're individuals here—people—not just IBM cards . . . there are bonds common to all of us . . . mail from home lifts our spirits . . . the cafeteria sustains our bodies . . .

and when all else fails—there's always “the 90’s.”

*The brick and steel and tradition are the Abbey, the fun times, the sad times . . . the beer and the books-these, too, are the Abbey, but more importantly, more intimately—WE are Belmont
Abbey College.*

1902—1968

Coach—Teacher—Gentleman

A Great Friend Passes

A young man came to Belmont Abbey College in 1929, just after receiving his bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois. It was his first career employment at a time when career positions were at a premium, and it was to become his life's work.

Directing and inspiring young men for nearly four decades to undertake the rigorous discipline of physical training has been only a part of the aim and achievement of the colleague we recognize here. True, he has marshalled collegiate teams whose total dedication has been legendary, whose spirit and prowess have won national championships; yet, of greater importance has been the example of his own personal life, which has shown to all his calm ability to accept victory with grace and defeat with dignity.

Deeply respected by his professional peers, admired by his thousands of students who sat at his feet, the man "HUMPY" WHEELER gives the lie to the belief that nice guys finish last. He is, indeed, the finest example of a true Abbeyman—God's Gentleman—and this College is grateful to him for his dedicated devotion to the high ideals daily inculcated in the students of this College.

PUBLICATIONS

"You old men shall dream dreams, you young men shall see visions."

—Joel

Agora,

the student literary magazine at the Abbey, strives to be the vehicle for campus creative expression. It tries to reflect the author's individual thought, therefore it accepts for editorial consideration all manuscripts from the student body, regardless of viewpoint, style, or theme. Yet, the AGORA only publishes material of the highest quality, and in an academically free college community, it reflects the ideas of the present generation, its joys and sorrows, alienation and involvement, drives and aspirations.

All Abbey students are eligible for publication, and manuscripts are accepted by the Editorial Staff, throughout the year. The manuscripts are judged impartially by the staff, and those chosen for final inclusion in the magazine represent the best of Belmont Abbey College's literary expression by its creative students.

Contact . . .

is the monthly newspaper published by the students for the Abbey campus. Its chief purpose is to communicate and comment on the events which take place during the month. It is also a touchstone for thought on topics directly affecting Abbeymen. Perhaps its greatest moments are those in which it is raising controversy on the campus, for it strives to drive apathy away from the Abbey.

This year, in addition to publishing the newspaper, CONTACT also sent out a bi-weekly newsletter, thereby keeping the student as well informed as possible on the actions of the Student Government, Legislature, Union and general interests. Any and all interested students are continually welcomed to the Contact staff.

Spire,

this year, has been an attempt to define Belmont Abbey College. The best, and only definition we, the staff, could come up with is that WE are the Abbey — each and every one of us — faculty and student alike. The people make the place — and they make it number one.

We are proud to be telling the story of the 1968-69 year at the "U" — proud of our faculty, proud of our athletic teams and particularly proud of the Abbeymen — a rare breed.

We would like to thank all those without whom this book would never have been possible. In particular, we thank Father Kenneth Geyer, for his time, guidance and patience; Mr. Bill States, for his true Abbey spirit, it seemed nothing was too much to ask of this outstanding photographer in our Treasurer's office and Mr. Lloyd Mahaffey, of Delmar, who was never too busy to come out and give us a hand when we needed it.

Pi Kappa Phi . . .

is the newest national social fraternity at Belmont Abbey College. It aims to make its affiliates well-rounded persons, both socially and academically. Pi Kappa Phi stresses that its members must be always gentlemen, as in the traditions of its founders. Only fifteen miles from the national headquarters, located in Charlotte, N.C., the Sigma Alpha Colony is one of the best informed and most active colonies of Pi Kappa Phi in the nation.

Phi Kappa Theta,

since its inception on the Abbey campus, has been involved in service as well as social functions. The present house was acquired in the fall of 1963. With the brotherhood doing most of the work, the barn was quickly converted into the National House of the Year. In the summer of 1968 the brotherhood added a new wing to the back of the present lodge, expanding it three times in size. During the 1968-69 academic year the brotherhood has sponsored many worthwhile service projects. Working with Holy Angel's Nursery, the brotherhood helps in any way it can. Boy's town of North Carolina benefited by work done in selling tickets to an exhibition football game. These activities besides the many splendid social functions combine to make Phi Kappa Theta a dynamic organization.

Sigma Phi Epsilon . . .

was formed at the Abbey in 1964 as the Hibernian Social Club. The brothers began working immediately on their lodge and have since more than doubled the size of the original facilities. This year, they continued working on the newer section, adding a tile floor in the chapter room and completing their lounge.

Community services is a primary effort with Sigma Phi Epsilon. The McNights, the only family parishioners of Belmont Abbey Parish were surprised when the brothers and pledges joined in renovating their house and grounds in the fall.

The Heart Fund is given almost $400 annually by the Sig Ep brothers. For the past two years the brotherhood has marched from Gastonia to Charlotte (a distance of 30 miles) pulling a float and collecting money for the Heart Fund.

At Wake Forest University each February, N.C. Lambda participates in a "round-robin" basketball tournament.

Community service, a full social and athletic calendar, plus the insistence on scholastic excellence insures a well-balanced chapter at Belmont Abbey College.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

founded in 1899 and now boasting over 40,000 members in 200 chapters, strives to engender a healthy spirit of association and endeavor among all students of the college-fraternity and non-fraternity alike. Selection of members for TKE is based on character rather than on rank or wealth; hence, the members are men who diligently uphold TKE's traditional aims—primary loyalty to the Alma Mater, active support of the various functions in collegiate life, both curricular and extracurricular, and, above all, the zealous search for knowledge.

Who's Who In American Colleges And Universities

Election to Who's Who is always based on excellence and sincerity in scholarship, plus the student's leadership, participation and support in the campus community extracurricular and other activities, and service to the college, all of which tends to reflect future promise as a leader in American Society and Business. To be selected for this honor by the college and to be elected by the National Committee is one of the highest honors to be earned in American colleges.

Proctors

To be selected to proctor is perhaps one of the greatest compliments paid to an Abbeyman by his school. This is because they represent the authority of the Dean of Student's office and, therefore, must be mature and responsible individuals.

From writing out campus slips to rushing peers to the hospital and seeing that they are treated in emergencies, the proctors this year certainly proved that they are the capable and outstanding men that their job calls for.

*Belmont Abbey College, 1968-1969,
Contemplation . . . relaxation . . .
politics . . . games-organized and otherwise

*Freshmen enthusiasm abounds . .
even the beautiful Southern weather doesn't dampen Abbey Spirit*

*discussing the world situation is a favorite pastime . . .
football on the green is also a favorite pastime . . .

And all this is Belmont
